

Pitt's Spring Maggot 2017

An English Country Dance Weekend

March 31st-April 2nd, 2017, Pittsburgh PA

Susan Kevra AND Maivish

Susan Kevra is an internationally known caller of English and American dance from New England, now living in Nashville, TN. She is noted for her warmth and clear teaching. Dancers appreciate her diverse repertoire, from singing squares to advanced English. She has choreographed a number of English dances, plays the clarinet, and teaches Social History through Dance at Vanderbilt where she is a professor of French and American Studies. See <http://susankevr.com> for more about her dance, with videos and photos.

Maivish: Their performance is infused with lush harmonies, inspired interplay and captivating spirit. The group is a collaboration between American fiddler Jaige Trudel and British born guitarist Adam Broome and includes Matthew Olwell on flutes, bodhrán, and foot percussion. Hear wonderful samples of their music at <httpSe://www.maivish.com/>.

Saturday: Musician's workshop with Rachel Bell of Alchemy 10:30-12 (location TBA), English Workshop 2-5, Dance Party 8-11. Sunday: English workshops 10:30-12:30 and 1:30-3:30.

EXTRA: Friday Contra dance at 8:00 pm with Susan calling to the music of Maivish ($10 separate admission).

All dance events are at Swisshelm Park Community Center, 1050 Windermere Drive, Pittsburgh PA 15218.
